

DAILY BUSINESS REPORT

February 11, 2010 San Diego Metropolitan

Wendy Behan Elected President of Lawyers Club of San Diego

Wendy Behan

Wendy M. Behan, a longtime associate with Casey Gerry Schenk Francavilla Blatt & Penfield, has been elected president of Lawyers Club of San Diego, which seeks to advance the status of women in the law and society. Behan will serve as president for one-year for 2010-2011. She will spearhead the board of directors for the organization, a voluntary bar association comprised of female and male attorneys, judges, law students and others in the San Diego community. She previously served as Lawyer's Club's vice president of finance. Behan, whose practice is concentrated on personal injury and pharmaceutical products liability, has been an attorney with Casey Gerry since 1999. She currently represents clients injured by the supplement Hydroxycut and young women injured by Yaz, in addition to serious personal injury cases, such as motor vehicle accidents, dog bites and premises liability cases. She is a cum laude graduate of California Western School of Law and completed her bachelor's degree in law and society from UC Santa Barbara.